

BLUE MOUNTAIN GOLF COURSE

This public course is operated by the city for recreation and not great profit; labor and materials are donated by community and members; it is a beautiful place and an asset to the county.

Recreation opportunity for county residents and visitors; a place for young people to develop athletic talents; inexpensive recreation.

A beautiful course but in the dry years it struggles to survive--we do have a water problem most of the time.

